Someone called us

“faces in the crowd.”

Think about it.

It doesn't mean we fade away

in nameless numbers.

Sometimes we blend;

sometimes we stand

apart.

You see, the spotlight shifts.

We start out together—
all freshmen.

Have to
make our marks on campus,
have to
find our friends,
have to
choose a major,
pick a prof,
join basketball,
debate,
the band.

Try to bypass
registration lines,
bookstore hassles,
forms for Drop-Add,
Pass-Fail,
textbooks,
graduation.

Exams,
term papers,
general ed.,
fees, roommates,
long days,
late nights.

That's where it ends—

the crowd, that is,

the group,

the gang,

the herd.

You're on your own,

everyone

sometime.

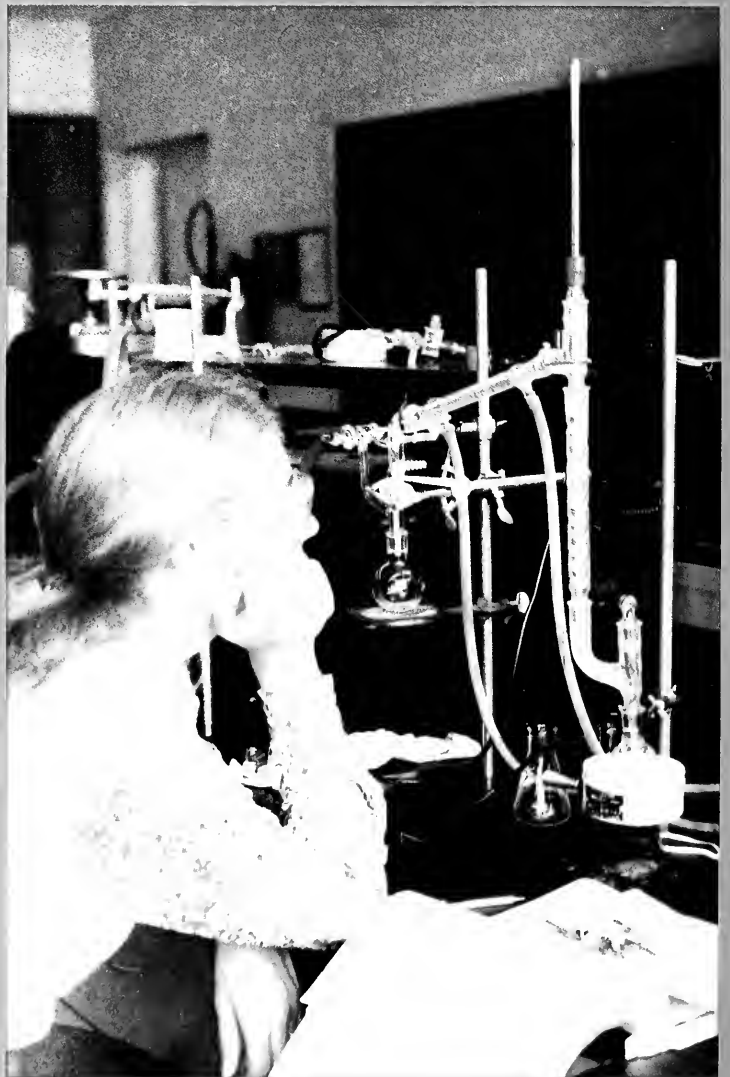

Alone

in dorm rooms,

in library cubes,

against the wall at a dance,

walking home from a party.

Alone,

but not for long.

Next day you steal the show,

score a pin,

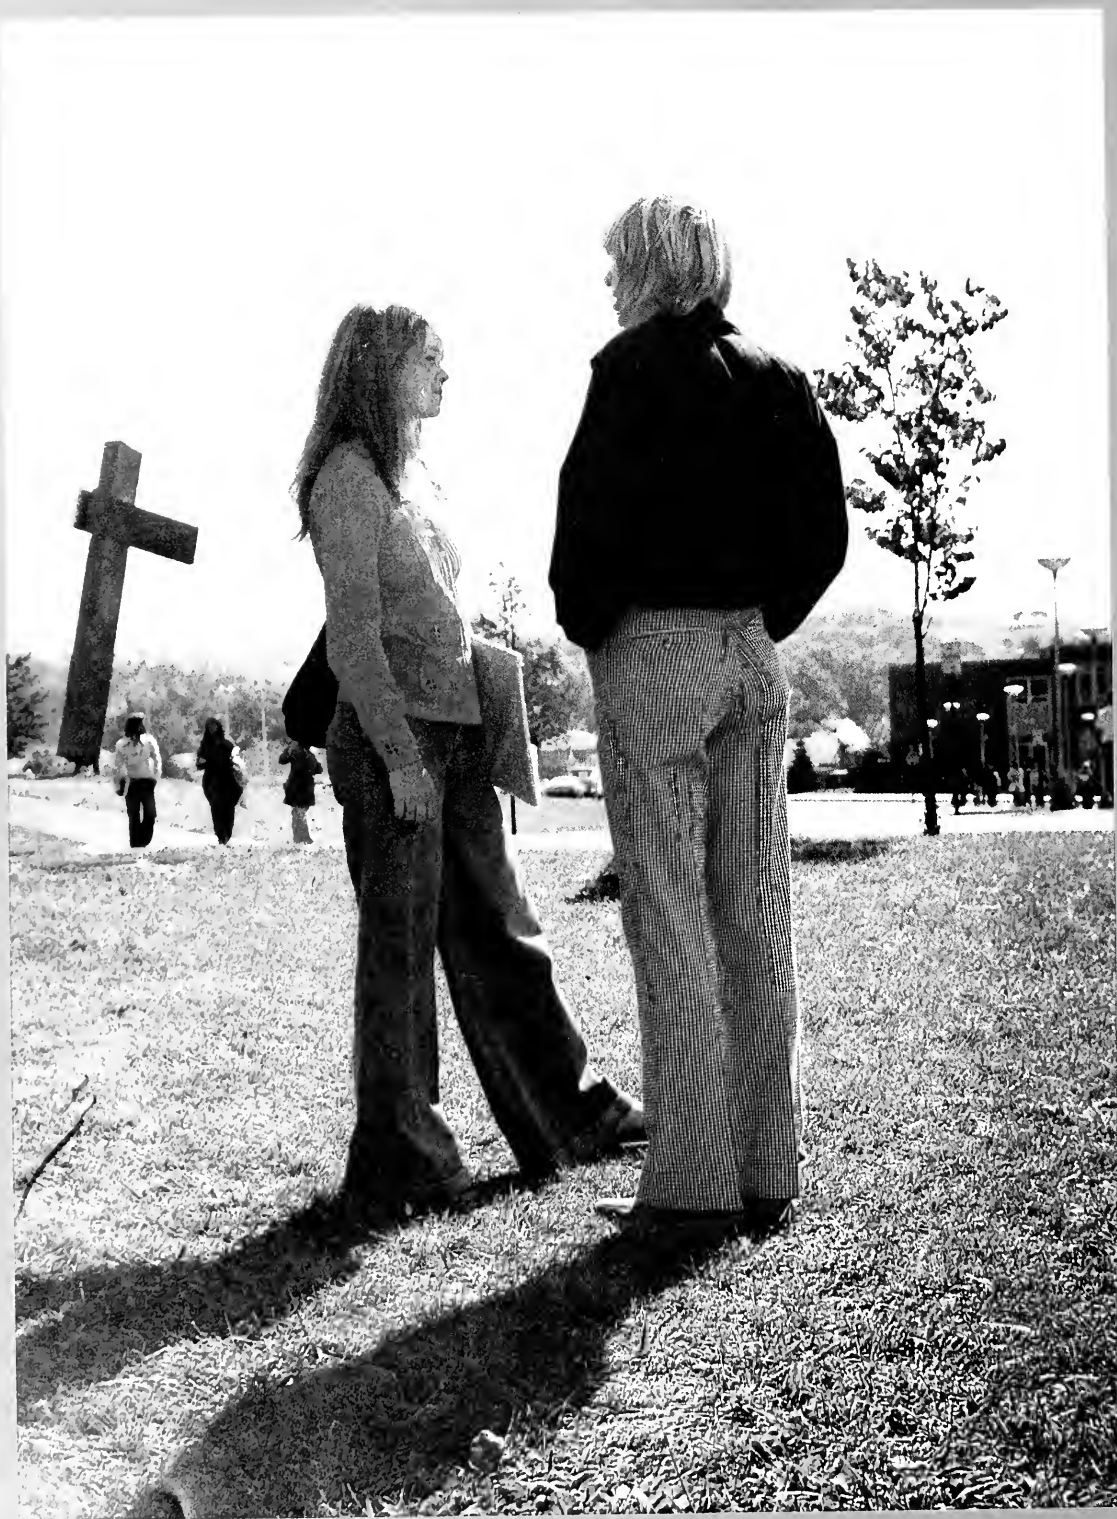

ace a test.

Snow falls,

the sun shines . . .

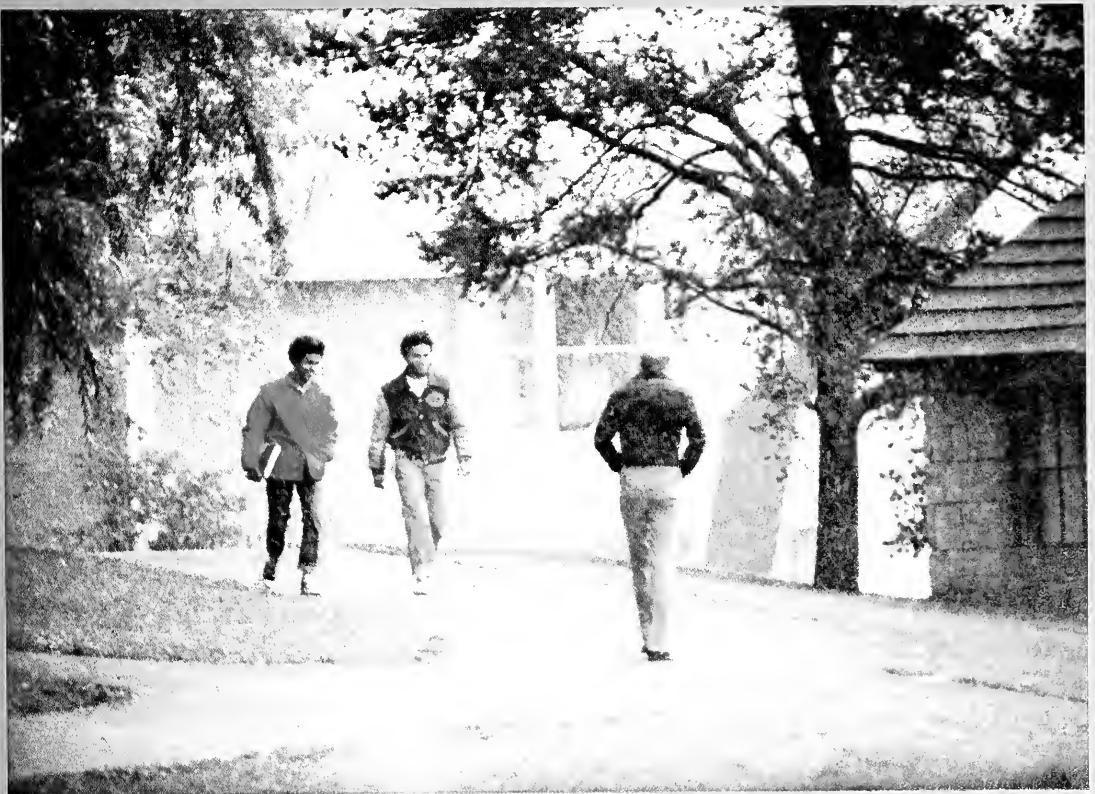

You are you.
Or maybe you're part
of two or more
faces.

Leaving.

Maybe you'll wish you could stay,

do the bad things over,

the good things again.

Maybe you'll head for I-80

with no regrets.

Maybe you won't know even then

what this place has been to you.

But it's touched you somehow.

Willing or not, you've been

a face

in this crowd.

The 1974 edition of the C.S.C. football team posted a 6-2-1 record, losing only to Conference finalists Slippy Rock and West Chester and tying Edinboro.

This season ended an era in Clarion football as thirteen seniors closed out their college careers. Eight were three-year starters and two were record setters—running back Steve Nolan and split end Ron Partridge. Nolan set a new career rushing mark of 1817 yards while Partridge holds Most Yards Receiving in One Year. A Small College All-American along with defensive tackle Tom Taormina. Partridge hauled in 36 passes for 778 yards.

Bob Guyer, the first player in recent years to start as a freshman, also ended his career. Co-Captaining with Guyer, Tom West hauled in 82 passes over three seasons, an uncommon number for a tight end. Scott Peters was converted to defensive back during the season and led the league with seven interceptions. In the secondary with Peters was the George Blanda of the Conference, 27-year-old Jack Quinn.

In 1974-75 Clarion's wrestlers had to rebuild. Gone were six starters from the 1973-74 team, which had quite possibly been the best team in Clarion's history. In dual meets the team's record was 13-5. Heavyweight Chuck Coryea was Clarion's only champion in the Penn State Invitational. Individual champions Pete Morelli, Tom Turnbull, and Don Rohn led to their third consecutive Wilkes Open Team Championship. Clarion placed third in the Pennsylvania State College Conference Tournament with Don Rohn (142) and Chuck Coryea (HWT) as tournament champions. In the Eastern Regional Tournament Clarion had three champions, Pete Morelli (118), Rohn (134), and Coryea (HWT). At the NCAA Tournament Clarion finished in a tie for 26th place. One of the season's highlights came when Clarion hosted the East-West All-American Wrestling Classic, pitting the best of the East against the best of the West. Over 4000 fans watched the West defeat the East 18-14.

Clarion State's Gymnastic Team had a very successful dual meet season, finishing with an 8-0 record. Losing Connie Israel to injury at mid-season was a real blow to the team, but the girls met the challenge, placing fifth in the Eastern Region and tenth in the College Nationals. Karen Brezack won the vaulting event at Nationals to give the gymnasts a National Champion.

Women's Swimming

How sweet the silent backward tracings!
The wanderings as in dreams—the meditation of old times resumed—
their loves, joys, persons, voyages.
Walt Whitman

To all who helped with this year's Sequels: the editors say thanks!
